

Who is Marigold?

A discussion guide for MARIGOLD by K.L.Darnell

☞ What is the MARIGOLD story about?

☞ A story usually has a beginning, a middle and an end. Why do you think the author starts and ends the story with snow?

☞ Do you think the author wants us to feel the same about the snow in the beginning as we do at the end?

☞ What season is it when the author writes, “Days Long and rain Song”? Why are days long? Can you see who might be the singer?

☞ At what point in the story is there the most action? Why do you think the illustrator showed so much happening? Are there unexpected things happening on this page?

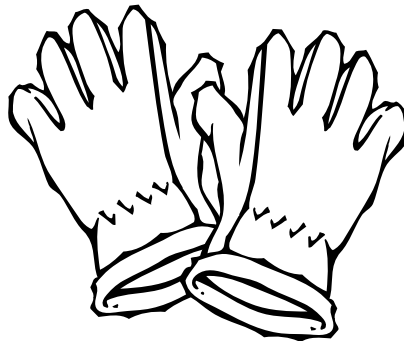

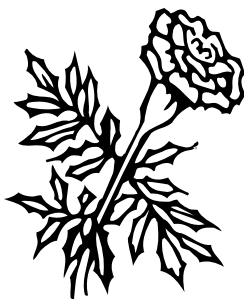

☞ Many things in the first picture of the book are also on the last page of the story. Are they exactly the same as they were in the beginning? How are they different? Why?

☞ Do you think you could tell this same story without the words?

☞ Who are the main characters in this story?

☞ Who is Marigold?

☞ Who does all the work in this story. Are there people in this story? Are they important?
